I HAD SHORT ONES ON, TOO
By Jim Manse

"It's spring!" "It's spring!" I gladly cried,

And smelled the balmy air.
Then flung the window open wide

And slept without a care.
"Id's sprig!" "Id's sprig!" I do nod cry.

For I ab ill id bed.
Thad balby breeze, id tod a lie;

"Id' fall," id should have said!

P. S.—I didn't really write this. I copped it out of the Denver Express.

WIFE SLAYER BUCKLEY CAUGHT

John Buckley, 3845 Wallace st., who last night shot and killed his wife of a year, Mrs. Aurelia Buckley, 5528 Lake Park av., after she had filed suit for divorce, was captured today in the parish house of the Holy Name cathedral, superior and State.

Buckley invaded the parish house, drew a revolver and threatened the priests. One of the priests called the E. Chicago av. police station. Lieut. Garrick and Patrolman Pete Schous made the arrest.

BUCK NOT A CANDIDATE

Ald. Rob't M. Buck, in a letter to Mrs. James Gardiner, 238 N. Pine av., well-known civic worker, announced his decision not to be a candidate in the Lundin stamping ground, the 33d ward. He thanked her and her friends for the work they had been doing for him by way of circulating an independent petition.
